ORDER

This case is scheduled for a settlement conference on October 6, 2023. I previously sent out a notice that supplied instructions on what to do in advance of the settlement conference. A review of the parties' preconference submissions indicates they have not supplied each other with a demand and offer.

Good cause appearing, it is this 4th day of October 2023, ORDERED that the parties will immediately exchange demand and offer in accordance with my written instructions. I have attached a copy of the instructions. If the plaintiff does not wish to make a demand, or the defendant is not prepared to make an offer, the parties will immediately make arrangements with my deputy to talk to me by telephone, so we don't waste time at the conference.

Please email all participants' names and emails to sheila_mccurry@paed.uscourts.gov by September 27, 2023. The ZOOM log-on information will be emailed prior to the conference. A status telephone call will be held on September 27, 2023 at 10:30 a.m. Counsel will call chamber's call-in number which was provided via e-mail.

- Plaintiff must make a demand before the settlement conference. Defendant must make an offer before the conference.
- Plaintiff will comply with Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(1)(A)(iii) at once, if plaintiff has not already provided a computation of damages that complies with the rule.

- Please notify the court by joint telephone conference one week before the conference if settlement is not a real possibility, for example, if the defendant will not make an offer or will offer only nuisance value.
- Counsel is responsible to have clients with full settlement authority physically present for the duration of the conference.¹ A call for additional authority to settle ordinarily means that the in-person representative did not have full settlement authority.
